CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC!

DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE.

WHEREAS it having become known to the Proprietors of Dr. Bright's Phosphodyne that a worthless imitation, bearing a similar name, is exported to India, China, &c., and endeavoured to be foisted on purchasers as equal in efficacy to Dr. Bright's Phosphodyne, they feel it due to the public to specially caution them against this compound and request their most careful attention to the following distinctive characteristics of Dr. Bright's (the only genuine) Phosphodyne.

1st.—That Dr. Bright's Phosphodyne is sold only in cases.

2nd.—The words "Dr. Bright's Phosphodyne" are clearly blown in each bottle.

3rd.—The Registered Trade Mark and Signature of Patente are printed on the label of every case.

4th.—Directions for use in all the following languages are enclosed in each case—English, French, German, Italian, Dutch, Spanish, Portuguese, Russian, Danish, Turkish, Persian, Hindostani, Madrasse, Bengalee, Chinese, and Japanese.

Without which none can POSSIBLY be Genuine.

DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE

Is the Only Reliable Remedy for NERVOUS AND LIVER COMPLAINTS AND ALL FUNCTIONAL DERANGEMENTS.

DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE is patronised by the Aristocracy and the Elite, extensively used in the Army and Navy, and strongly recommended by the leading Medical Practitioners.

DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE

Is sold by all Chemists and Patent Medicine Vendors throughout the Globe.

In India, China, &c., DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE is generally sold at an advance on the English Price.

The high Estimation in which Phosphodyne is held is unquestionably due to its administration, in this form. Therefore

ASK FOR

DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE

And do not be persuaded to take any Useless and Possibly Dangerous Imitation.

CAUTION TO MEDICINE VENDORS.

The Trade Mark, Label, &c., of DR. BRIGHT'S PHOSPHODYNE are duly entered at Stations' Hall, London, and are also registered in the Chief Cities of the World.

Chemists and Druggists are hereby warned that legal proceedings will be immediately instituted by the Authorized Agents, against any person or persons selling fraudulent imitations of DR. BRIGHT'S (the only genuine) PHOSPHODYNE, from this date, 1st October, 1878.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

We are informed by the Agents (Messrs Jardine, Matheson & Co.) that the S. S. Glengyle left Singapore for this port to-day (11th).

His Lordship, Acting Chief Justice Snowden, sat in Summary Jurisdiction to-day; but the cases brought before him were of no interest to our readers.

The programme of the Amateur Concert, to be given to-morrow evening in aid of the sufferers by the City of Glasgow Bank failure, is published in another column. We trust that there will be a full house on the occasion.

The owners of the Canton Cotton Yarn Mill seem to have chosen a very opportune moment for the sale of their property, to judge from the discussion which took place some time ago. It is presumed that such an establishment would meet with more fair play here than it received in Canton.

The repairs to the British ship Connaught Ranger, rendered necessary in consequence of the very bad weather she experienced on her passage from London to this port and her having got ashore in the straits of Timor, are to be undertaken by the H. and W. Dock Company, Messrs T. Anthony & Co., doing the rigging and sailmaking.

Professor Marco Vitz's performance at the Garrison Theatre last evening passed off tolerably well, although, to judge by the sparse audience, it was not a success from a monetary point of view. The Professor appears to have improved since his last appearance. His Guinea-pig trick was not so successful as it might have been, owing to the bottle in which the miserable little object was confined being too transparent, and the illusion being thus destroyed. The Cabinet trick was very well done, and the Professor promises to explain it on his appearance next Saturday. A duet, by a lady and gentleman amateur, brought the performance to a close.

We understand that the Cooktown folks are regretting the embargo put upon Celestial immigration, as a gentleman has been here to select a number of men to work upon the roads there. He has made a careful selection, and all candidates were required to have some knowledge of the English language, and be strong able-bodied men. To such men he offered a passage and wages at the rate of about $6 per month. Two or three old offenders have been shipped off in this way by the Macca, their knowledge of English having been acquired in Victoria Gaol, and one of the bold "look-ons" from the Police Hulk has decamped, leaving his prospects of becoming a pensioner behind. He was very honest, as he did not take his uniform with him.

The non-arrival of the steamers Zamboanga and Madagascar is giving serious cause for alarm. The weather has been very bad to the southward of late, and there can be little doubt but that both vessels have met with some disaster, but there is still hope that they may have reached Manila. The Zamboanga left Saigon on the 26th November for this port, having put in there for repairs, and the Madagascar is 23 days out from Bangkok to-day. The German corvette Freyja went out in search of her yesterday. It may be remembered that the Madagascar was nearly given up for lost some 18 months or 2 years ago, but turned up all safe; let us hope that she will do so this time. Our latest advices from Manila are to the 3rd instant.

It has frequently cropped up at inquests on the bodies of persons who have died from serious accidents, that the Doctor has been absent when the injured man or woman was brought to the Hospital, and the patient, not in frequently, has been left to the tender mercies of the ward-masters or attendants, who, however desirous of doing what is needful, cannot be expected to have the skill and knowledge of a surgeon, nor can they take upon themselves the responsibility of doing much until the doctor has seen the patient. We are far from wishing to blame the resident superintendent,—indeed, the gentleman who at present holds that important position is seldom found absent from his post, and is most assiduous in his attention to the poorest sufferer brought under his care,—but we certainly think there should be some arrangements made so that the Hospital may never be left without a responsible man who can act in an emergency. In the case of the unfortunate man who met his death in such a singular and shocking manner on Sunday night, it transpired that the deceased had been dead several hours before he was seen by the doctor, although he was taken to the Hospital at about 10 past 9, and lived for nearly four hours. The medical testimony went to show that his life could have been saved, but the admission made by the wardmaster (John Carneiro) "I did not send for the doctor because I did not think the wounds dangerous" speaks for itself, and shows clearly the importance of having some one always on the spot who would be able to judge whether or not wounds were dangerous. The superintendent of course cannot be expected to remain in the house all day and all night. The imperfect lighting of such dangerous localities as Aberdeen Street has more than once proved itself to be another matter which requires some attention, and should be seen to at once, otherwise, as soon as the recent accident has been forgotten (in the usual nine days, or less) the necessity for any alteration will not be so apparent.

The following telegrams are from the Singapore Daily Times:

Bombay, Nov. 29.—The Ameer is concentrating his troops in the neighbourhood of Cabul, where they are strongly entrenched. Some Turkish troops of the Reserve (Rudis) are reported to have committed terrible massacres at Melnik in Macedonia.

London, Nov. 30.—The Central Asian diplomatic correspondence has been made public. It shows General Kaufmann constantly writing to the Ameer of Afghanistan, the Russian Government despatching the mission to Cabul, and afterwards treating it as an independent act of General Kaufmann, declaring provisional Native (nature) and a simple act of courtesy, and repeating past assurances of non-intervention in Afghanistan.

Bombay, Dec. 1.—The Afreedis have attacked a signalling party in the Khyber Pass which is now blocked up and convoys are stopped. Only one tribe is hostile. The force under General Roberts advanced and found the enemy posted in the Peiwar Pass. A reconnaissance was made and some firing took place, but our loss was slight and the enemy's positions were disclosed.

London, Nov. 30 (delayed).—It is reported that negotiations are proceeding for arrangement of a new convention which is to give great scope for English intervention in Turkey.

London, Dec. 1.—In the course of a speech at Greenwich, Mr. Gladstone referring to the Afghan difficulty, repudiated the allegation that the Liberal Government had estranged the friendship of the Ameer as stated in a published Despatch of Lord Cranbrook, Secretary of State for India; and he added that he considered the war as unjust one.

Police Intelligence.
(Before C. V. Creagh, Esq.)
Dec. 11, 1878.

Cheung Aow, was charged with stealing some savings valued at 16 cents, the property of complainant (Lau Yui yan). There were seven previous convictions against the prisoner, which he admitted. He was sentenced to 6 months' imprisonment, the first and last 14 days of which to be in solitary confinement, and the rest hard labour, and to be exposed in the stocks near the whipping post for six hours.

WILL HE DO IT AGAIN? Su Amin, a tailor, was convicted of stealing a bangle from a child, and sent to 6 months' imprisonment, first and last fourteen days to be in solitary confinement, and the rest hard labour, and to be exposed in the stocks for 6 hours at Lascar Row.

CUTTING GRASS. Yeung Au and Li Ah, grass-cutters, were charged with stealing a quantity of grass food for cattle, the property of Mr J. D. Humphrey, from his land at Kowloon. The prisoners admitted the charge, saying they wanted to make some money. One month's hard labour.

CHAIRS. Lum Aze, a coolie, was charged with stealing two sedan-chairs, one a lady's chair the property of Captain Punched, and the other a mountain-chair the property of Mr Mackay, of the Temperance Hall. He was further charged with the unlawful possession of a lady's sedan-chair. The prisoner stated that as to the lady's chair it belonged to Messrs Pustau. An Indian watchman died in it about 45 or 46 days ago, and was carried up to the station, or the dead-house, in it. The house-coolie gave it to prisoner; his name was Yu Apul. Prisoner continued to say that he was a chair-coolie, that he had been in the employ of Pustau as a chair-coolie; he carried Mr Mackay's chair to the mountain, and was given to him by Mr Lancon on 17th day of the 2nd moon of last year (31 March 1877) at the Hotel. The case was remanded until the 13th instant, to allow of further enquiries being made, and that the alleged owners of the chairs might be in attendance.

DRUNKENNESS. Anselmo Pinto, a seaman unemployed, drunk and disorderly; fined 5 shillings or 1 week's imprisonment.

ASSAULT. James Cunningham, a private 74th Highlanders, was charged with assaulting one Chow Kwee Uen. He admitted the charge, and was fined $1.

DISORDERLY CHARACTERS. Bernhard McDermott, and William Geary, privates 74th Highlanders, were charged with disorderly conduct and obstructing and assaulting the police in the execution of their duty. Sergeant Hennessy, sworn, stated that he was walking along the Bonham Road in uniform at about 1 past 2 o'clock yesterday, when he met the prisoners coming along the road in a very excited state. They had their belts in their hands, and one of them had stones in his hands. Witness spoke to them, and they put on their belts and threw away the stones. Another man named Cunningham then came up and witness asked what was the matter, and he said he had been beaten by the Chinese. A Chinaman named Chan Kwee Uen then charged Cunningham with assaulting him. He had marks upon him, and witness therefore requested Cunningham to go to the station and answer the charge of assault. Cunningham consented to go, when the second prisoner interfered and said, "If they take you (meaning Cunningham) to the station, they will take me dead. I do not value my life." The first prisoner took off his belt and rushed at the Chinese. Second prisoner caught up a hoe, which he snatched from a coolie, and raised it as if to strike. Witness threw Cunningham down and then picked him up again. Cunningham and second prisoner then rushed at witness, and he put them both on a small wall close by. Afterwards assistance arrived, and all were taken to the station. Inspector Cleaver corroborated Sergeant Hennessy's statement. Defendants were fined $10 each, or 1 month's hard labour.

The Straits.
(Singapore Daily Times.)

H. M. S. Iron Duke, Captain Cleveland, which left this for Malacca and Rangoon on the 18th ultimo, with Vice-Admiral R. Coote, C.B. on board, anchored in the Roads yesterday afternoon (2nd Dec.) on her way to the China station.

His Excellency the Governor, accompanied by Lady Robinson, Major McNair, Secretary to the Mission to Siam, Dr T. I. Rowell, P.C.M.O., Lieut. Walker, A.D.C., and Mr E. W. Howard, Private Secretary, arrived on Saturday afternoon on board H. M. S. Modeste in the harbour from Bangkok. Upon the Modeste being anchored, the steam yacht of the Master Attendant, with the Hon. C. C. Smith, went alongside, and, shortly afterwards, His Excellency, Lady Robinson, and suite left on board the yacht for Johnston's Pier, the Blue Jackets of the Modeste manning the yards in honour of His Excellency. On the Pier, His Excellency was received by the heads of departments and friends who welcomed him back to Singapore.

"O. S." writes as follows on the Hydrography of the Malay Archipelago:—"Having just returned from a pleasure trip with Mytheer through the Moluccas, I would call the attention of the seafaring public to the very unsatisfactory state of the charts of the Indian Archipelago in general."

"We left Sourabaya on the 22nd Sept. in the Mail steamer Bromo, and stranded on the 16th Oct. at 7 p.m. on a rocky coral reef stretching from the coast of Sumbawa for about two miles into the strait that divides Sumbawa from Apie Volcano island. After great exertions, we got ashore again at 11 a.m. on the 19th, but before morning could be got up (the boilers had been emptied to lighten the ship as much as possible), the strong current and wind carried us on to another part of the reef where we remained fixed until high water at sunset.

"This reef is not put down on my chart 'China Sea (southern part), Eastern Passages etc', nor on the Dutch chart by Lieut. P. Inaan, 1867, by which the captain sailed, it being the latest official chart sold at the Harbour Office, Batavia. The reef was known in former years and is marked on T. Swart's chart, 1853, and on a map of Netherlands India, 1857, but it was simply forgotten on the later charts, and by the original negligence of the Hydrographic Office at Batavia, no notice was taken of the total loss of the Dutch Bark Amakalar, in 1878, and the stranding of the steamer Ephron, last year, on the same reef."

"The news of the stranding of the Bromo reached Batavia on the 26th October. Up to my departure on the 10th instant, from Batavia, no notification of the existence of this most dangerous obstacle to navigation has appeared, and probably none will appear. It does not seem to be their custom to make such things known over there, and that is the reason why I trouble you with this letter."

"A great many facts prove the Dutch Charts to be utterly misleading. I select from them only this one: Franklin Bank in Macassar Straits, marked on my English chart, has disappeared in an inexplicable manner on the latest Dutch Official chart, and the consequence was the loss of the Dutch brig Dandaneira; but then what can you expect of a Hydrographic Department, whose chief geographical convictions are so mixed up, that he places in the latest official chart 'West-kust van Sumatra' by A. C. T. Edeling, the port of Teloh Betang in Sapangka Bay, instead of Lampong Bay."

"Whoever sails in the Malay Archipelago ought to understand that he does at much greater risk to life and ship than the Marine Insurance Companies dream of."

It appears that a good deal of scandal has been caused in Burmah society by the discovery that a certain French Count Le Fez does something in an impostor, whose real name is simply Le Fez, and who simply dubbed himself "Count" and "de" for his own purposes, something after the fashion of Count Von Attome, who imposed upon Java and Australian society some years ago, and who sent an account of his various adventures for publication in these columns from the Sourabaya jail where he was confined for his misdoings for some time. M. Le Fez rejoiced in a private secretary, and this gentleman writes a long letter to the Rangoon papers in explanation of his connection with his patron. The following extract from that letter may possess some interest to the "upper five" in the Straits, amongst whom M. Le Fez would seem to have been well-known and favourite.

"My orders were, briefly, to meet in Paris a French gentleman named Le Fez; to start with him on a certain day for an unknown place in the East, where a hairy man and woman were to be seen; and when said persons were found, to bring them back to England. I was also informed that two detectives had been put upon Le Fez whilst he was in London, and that it was found that he had paid long visits to the Prince Imperial at Obichelhurst, and to Mr Thomas Brassey, M. P. at Battle; and it was believed that he held some sort of title. Whilst in Paris nothing occurred to excite any suspicion, Le Fez's associates, being apparently of a high order, I was not sent out with the man to act as a private detective, and therefore, having thoroughly satisfied myself that he was genuine, I thought no more about it. As you have said, he possessed 'a most distinguished manner and charming address'; and seeing that these have, for a protracted period, passed muster not only with numbers of officers of the British army and their discerning wives, with every Resident and Assistant Resident in Perak, with the Maharajah of Johore, the Sultan of Quasah, and beyond every one else, with his Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor of Penang, who the 'Count' was an established institution, but also with I might say hundreds of highly intelligent gentlemen of his own nation, it is rather exciting to expect me to form the one solitary exception."

The latest news from Rangoon, which comes down to the 11th instant, seems to forbode trouble between the English and Burmese Governments, as will be seen from the following two paragraphs:—"An extensive conspiracy has been discovered on behalf of the Nyoonyang Prince, who is now in refuge with his brother at the British Residency. His troops, once the Viceroy of Pegu, has been arrested with several other minor officials. Confessions under torture exculpate the Nyoonyang, but implicate his younger brother as guilty of cognizance of the conspiracy. Nyoonyang's character and previous conduct place him beyond suspicion."

His popularity is dangerous for all parties. Negotiations for his retirement to British territory were, progressing. This would solve all difficulties.

"Mandalay news is highly unsatisfactory. The British steamer Yankenkong was boobyed in Upper Burmah by an armed force, and seven passengers forcibly taken, in spite of the Captain's remonstrances. It is reported the Resident asks for a spy guard. Arrests, imprisonments, and executions of men, women, and children, supposed to be adherents of the two refugee princes, are unceasing at Mandalay."

The young King, of whom so much was expected, is beginning to behave in rather a tyrannical manner.

The Sumatra Courier of the 19th October makes the following concluding remarks on Batak Cannibalism:—

"It is with cannibalism the same as with other Batak customs. They have been handed down from father to son down to the present generation, and they are observed because they form part of the adat, without further inquiry. Explanations like the foregoing [by Marsden and Junghuhn] have probably been thought out to give an answer to Europeans who asked for the why and wherefore. As to the origin of this monstrous custom, their own tradition appears to be the most probable account, namely that, during a furious civil war, they proceeded to eat captive enemies from extraordinary mutual enmity; but the introduction of justice into the administration of this is not cleared up by it. Regarding the period of the origin of cannibalism, it need only be said that, in any case, it must have taken place after the separation of the Bataks and Malays from the common tribal stock, because among the Malays there is no trace of it to be found. It must also have happened before the ninth century, because it is a work that treats of the voyages of the Arabs in the ninth century (and translated into French by Abbe Eusebius Renaudot) it is expressly stated that on the island of Al Raman, which can be no other than Sumatra, as appears from the information appended that it abounds with camphor, there lived a race of man-eaters."

As the subject of Chinese Dialects is just now of some interest in view of the efforts being made to provide the Straits Settlements with a more reliable class of interpreters than has hitherto existed, the following details, compiled from the preface to Dr. Williams' great Dictionary, and supplemented by some additional information supplied to us by some of our friends.

Mr Knowlton, the well-known China Missionary, states in Notes and Queries on China and Japan (Vol. 11, p. 60) that the number of different dialects in China may be estimated at three hundred and eighty. This, in the opinion of most Chinese scholars, is vast exaggeration, if the definition of "mutual unintelligibility," held to by Dr. Williams, is to be accepted as a guide. So far as foreigners have yet touched upon the subject, the following would appear to be about the number of dialects and sub-dialects as yet met with, though of course a very large area of the Empire still remains unaccounted for:—

Name.	Dialects.	Sub-dialects.
Mandarin...	4	8
Cantonese...	1	4
Hakka...	1	5
Tschew...	1	1
Hokkien...	1	5
Poochow...	1	1
Chinking and Kiangsu...	1	8
Hui Chau...	1	2
Shanghai...	1	1
Ningpo...	1	1
Total.....	13	18

Thus there are, so far as yet known, at least thirteen separate dialects, a man speaking any one of which is unintelligible to persons speaking any of the others. But to be certain of understanding any Chinaman, an acquaintance must also be had with some eighteen sub-dialects. A knowledge of these facts may go to lessen the blunders so constantly made about the requirements of Court interpreters, &c.

FOLLOWING INSTRUCTIONS.

(Social Circle.)

The following correspondence on a subject within the experience of all of our mercantile readers will illustrate a very common state of things between shippers in China and their home agents:—

China, 25th May, 187—.

Messrs SMYTH & Co.,

London.

Dear Sir,—By the Orion we are sending to your good selves, in all 906 pkgs. of Tea. Under another cover you will receive particulars of them with documents.

These Teas are on account of a constituent whose instructions to us are very precise—viz. to sell on arrival at best rates obtainable. If supplies from this side contain large or cheaper Teas on the way, falling private offers please dispose of them at Auction. On no account are the Teas to be held unless a panic prevails.

Yours faithfully,

JACKSON & Co.

No. 1,

London, 10th July, 187—.

Messrs JACKSON & Co.,

China.

Dear Sirs,—We are much obliged to you for the consignment of Teas by Orion. We shall most carefully follow the instructions with regard to their disposal. The Orion is expected in a few days. There is a good demand for the description your friend has selected, and we hope to hear of further shipments.

Yours &c.,

SMYTH & Co.

No. 2,

London, 17th July, 187—.

Messrs JACKSON & Co.,

China.

Dear Sirs,—Our market is quiet with buyers at about 4d. under present quotations. We have had offers for both your parcels of Tea; but so much below our ideas of their value that we have thought it advisable for your friends' sake to decline them. Enclosed are our brokers' valuations. The 8-5 packages you see are valued at 1s. 4d. (cost 1s. 4d.), and the 8-1 packages 1s. 6d. to 1s. 7d. (cost 1s. 5d.). Expecting to be able in a day or two to wire sales.

We are, &c.,

SMYTH & Co.

No. 3.

London, 24th July, 187—.

Messrs JACKSON & Co.,

China.

Dear Sirs,—We regret to advise a continuance of dullness in our Tea market. Large arrivals and telegraphic advices of large shipments coming on, make it difficult to obtain offers; and to resort to Auction just at this moment, would, we are sure, not be for your interests.

Yours, etc.,

SMYTH & Co.

No. 4,

London, 31st July, 187—.

Messrs JACKSON & Co.,

China.

Dear Sirs,—No change of any importance, but look for an improvement in a few days, and shall avail ourselves of it to quit your shipments in our hands.

Referring to our separate respects,

We are, &c.,

SMYTH & Co.

No. 5,

London, 7th August, 187—.

Messrs JACKSON & Co.,

China.

Dear Sirs,—We are pleased to be able to tell you of a demand having sprung up, and although latest advices from China say the export was being hurried on in too large quantities, we think you will approve of our not pressing your consignments until our market has had some time given to rally.

Yours etc.,

SMYTH & Co.

No. 6,

London, 14th August, 187—.

Messrs JACKSON & Co.,

China.

Dear Sirs,—The improvement mentioned in our last has disappeared, and we regret to advise further large arrivals are depressing prices. Sales show a drop of 1d. per lb. in some kinds, which is very disappointing.

Yours &c.,

SMYTH & Co.

Nos. 7 & 8,

21st & 28th August.

No alteration for the better.

No. 9,

London, 4th Sept., 187—.

Messrs JACKSON & Co.,

China.

Dear Sirs,—We are in receipt of your telegram of 2nd inst., requesting us to sell your Teas. At present we could only do so at a great sacrifice that we are confident it would not be right. Similar Teas to your 691 pkgs. were sold to day at Auction at 1/2, and we just learn that the counterpart of the 815 pkgs. was forced off at 1/1 per lb. a few days ago. We look with confidence for an improvement in prices are long, and to advise sales of your Teas.

Yours &c.,

SMYTH & Co.

No. 10,

London, 11th Sept., 187—.

Messrs JACKSON & Co.,

China.

Dear Sirs,—As we anticipated, there is again a better tone in our market, but rates remain unchanged.

Yours &c.,

SMYTH & Co.

No. 11,

London, 23rd Sept., 187—.

Messrs JACKSON & Co.,

China.

Dear Sirs,—Our Market has relaxed into a lifeless condition, and it is quite impossible to obtain reasonable bids. Most of the sales effected have been by Public Auction at prices ruinous to importers.

Yours &c.,

SMYTH & Co.

No. 12,

London, 15th October, 187—.

Messrs JACKSON & Co.,

China.

Dear Sirs,—We have received your favour of 1st September, in reply to ours of 17th July. We regret extremely now that we did not dispose of your shipments—but it was quite impossible for us to have foreseen the disastrous turn things have taken. We are sorry too, that buyers on your side will persist in sending supplies in such excessive quantities. We can assure you our most strenuous efforts are being put forward to find buyers, but we have hitherto been unsuccessful.

Yours &c.,

Only market report.

No. 14,

London, 6th November, 187—.

Messrs JACKSON & Co.,

China.

Dear Sirs,—Since writing you on 28th ult., the downward movement in our Tea market has continued. There is so great a pressure to sell, that if an importer does not accept a bid at once, it is seldom repeated, and sufficient time is not allowed to wire offers to our friends in China.

Yours &c.,

SMYTH & Co.

No. 15,

London, 4th Dec., 187—.

Messrs JACKSON & Co.,

China.

Dear Sirs,—Trade in all its branches remains in an unsatisfactory state, and the near approach of the holidays has not tended to increase demand for Teas of the quality your shipments consist of. After the new year things will, we think, take a turn.

Yours &c.,

SMYTH & Co.

No. 16,

London, 8th January, 187—.

Messrs JACKSON & Co.,

China.

Dear Sirs,—Our Market Reports have given you particulars of what has been passing in our Tea Market since we last addressed you. There are signs of a revival in trade, and buyers are offering 4d. per lb. more for Common Teas than they could have bought at a month ago.

Yours &c.,

SMYTH & Co.

we think, if only arrivals continue on a moderate scale, that we have seen the bottom of our market.

Yours &c.,

SMYTH & Co.

London, 22nd January, 187—.

Messrs JACKSON & Co.,

China.

Dear Sirs,—A complete collapse has taken place in prices. The cargoes of no less than four vessels have been placed on offer during the week, and the arrival of two or three more is expected any day. Under these circumstances only such firms as are so imprudent as to attempt to sell. Rates at their auctions yesterday show a decline all round of 1d. to 1 1/2d. per pound.
